

Confirmation Works of Mercy

(for service at and outside of parish)

Candidate Name _____

For a follower of Jesus, service to others is not an option...it is a part of the deal. For a follower of Jesus, the question is not, "Should I do some service?" The question is, "What service am I going to do?" In the Gospel of John, at the end of the Passover meal, Jesus pours water into a basin, wraps a towel around his waist and begins to wash the feet of His disciples. After completing this action, He says, "Do you understand what I have done for you? You call me 'Teacher' and rightly, for so I am. If then, I, your Teacher, have washed your feet, you should wash each other's feet. I have given you an example that you should do as I have done to you." (John 13:12-15)

WORKS OF MERCY are inspired by Christ's example and precept that we are to do to others as we would have them do to us.

The corporal works of mercy: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, visit the imprisoned, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, and bury the dead. Six of these come from Jesus' teaching in Matthew 25: "What you do for the least of these, you do for me." The last comes from traditional Hebrew respect for the body.

The spiritual works of mercy: admonish the sinner, instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, bear wrongs patiently, forgive all injuries, and pray for the living and the dead. These teachings from the New Testament and 2 Maccabees compiled later than the first to address "spiritual" acts we owe each other as opposed to "temporal" (worldly) needs.
